Our Trade Show Rules & Regulations state:

11. Character of Exhibit

F. Under no circumstance shall booth personnel photograph and/or enter the exhibit space of another exhibitor without permission from the assigned exhibitor and at no time may anyone photograph and/or enter an exhibit space which is not staffed. The use of deceptive and/or unethical methods to obtain information and/or gain an advantage over a competitor is strictly prohibited. Violators may, in the discretion of HPBA show management, be penalized with the loss of priority points, ejection from the event, or any other measures as deemed appropriate.

13. Cameras

Cameras will be allowed on the show floor, but no picture taking, including cell phone pictures, is allowed without the express approval of a company representative in the exhibitor booth that is being photographed.

Special Note: As an exhibitor, if you witness unauthorized photography, you are entitled to ask the person to stop taking pictures and/or ask a security guard to do so. A security guard may request unauthorized photos to be deleted.
