DON'T WAIT TO BOOK HOTELS

Nashville is a busy destination, and hotel availability can become limited as the show approaches. We encourage exhibitors to book early through the official HPBExpo27 Housing Block with Maritz.

Staying in the official block keeps your team close to Music City Center, downtown hotels, and industry events throughout the week.

As a reminder, exhibitors can also earn additional Priority Points for future booth selection by booking within the official housing block, which can impact future booth selection order.

BOOK EXHIBITOR HOUSING

Important: The only official housing partner for HPBExpo27 is Maritz. Any other company contacting you about hotel reservations is not authorized. For accuracy and security, always book through hpbexpo.com.

General Information & Deadlines Now Available

GENERAL INFORMATION

Exhibitor General Information and key Exhibitor Deadlines are now available on hpbexpo.com. Review these details early to help your team plan ahead and prepare for HPBExpo27.

DEADLINES

The complete Exhibitor Service Manual will be available online by October 1.

Ancillary Meetings & Events

Planning a meeting, reception, training, customer event, or other gathering during HPBExpo27?

To help avoid scheduling conflicts and create a positive experience for exhibitors and attendees, all meetings and events taking place during HPBExpo27, March 3–6, 2027, must be reviewed and approved by HPBA in advance.

Thursday, March 4, 2027, is the designated open night for manufacturer events and receptions.

Companies planning an event during show week should submit their request as early as possible for review and coordination.

Note: Events held within contracted exhibit space during show hours do not require an ancillary meeting request form. However, a variance form may still be required for food and beverage service.
